Part Time Head Swim Team Coach WantedThe YMCA of Williamsport is seeking a part-time head coach for our competitive winter swim team. Primary responsibilities include conducting and coordinating practices, events and swim meets for a swim team of approximately 40-50 swimmers. Schedule will include nights and weekends. Some meets will be located off site, so some travel will be involved. The head coach will also be responsible for doing meet entries, writing workouts and communicating with parents/swimmers/coaches. This position will be approximately a 13-15 hr/week time commitment. All candidates should have a swimming background and experience with supervision/coaching. They should have good communication skills and work well with school age children. Requirements Candidates must have strong communication & organizational skills, ability to maintain control with little distraction, & to work w/diverse group of people.  Candidates must be at least 21 years of age or older.

 Candidates are preferred to have current certifications in Lifeguarding, CPR/AED, and PRINCIPLES OF YMCA COMPETITIVE SWIMMING & DIVING. If applicant does not hold current certifications, they may still be considered if they can obtain these certifications prior to the season beginning.

*Excellent human relation skills and communication skills.

All interested applicants are asked to submit a resume and cover letter directly to Laura Barnsley, Aquatics Director at aquatics@williamsportymca.org

For more information, please call 570-971-7370 ext. 25.
